(A) Annual Highlights and Activities

1. Membership Growth and Engagement:

- The membership of the Kabete Friends Church Monthly Meeting has grown steadily, reaching a total of 750 members.
- Regular meetings and fellowship activities have been well attended, fostering a strong sense of community among members.

2. Spiritual Growth and Pastoral Care:

- The pastoral team, under the leadership of Snr Pastor Jami Sasaka, has been instrumental in providing spiritual guidance and support to the congregation.
- Pastor Rachel Musirwa and Pastor Hesbon Indula have led numerous Bible study sessions, prayer meetings, and counseling sessions, contributing to the spiritual growth of members.

3. Financial Stewardship:

- Treasurer Vincent Mulama and Vice Treasurer Bernard Amaita have diligently managed the church's finances, ensuring transparency and accountability.
- Regular financial reports have been presented to the congregation, highlighting the financial health of the church and encouraging responsible giving.

4. Youth and Children's Ministries:

- Isaac Muchika has led the Nairobi Young Adult Friends Program (NYAFP), organizing various activities that engage and empower young adults within the church.
- Perez Masakhwi has overseen the Quaker Children Ministries (QCM), ensuring that children receive age-appropriate spiritual education and participate in enriching activities.

5. Women's Ministry:

- Roseline Mutai has been actively leading the United Society of Friends Women (USFW), organizing events and initiatives that support women's spiritual and personal growth.

6. Community Outreach and Service:

- The church has been involved in various community service projects, including food drives, health clinics, and support for the less fortunate.
- The Quackermen Program, led by Thomas Kidaha, has played a significant role in these outreach efforts, demonstrating the church's commitment to social responsibility.

7. Auditing and Compliance:

- Auditor Enock Chisengo has conducted thorough audits of the church's financial records and operations, ensuring compliance with legal and ethical standards.

(B) Challenges and Opportunities

i. Challenges:

- Maintaining engagement and participation from all members, especially in the face of busy modern lifestyles.
- Ensuring financial sustainability amid rising costs and economic uncertainties.

ii. Opportunities:

- Expanding outreach programs to further impact the community.
- Increasing the use of technology for virtual meetings and online engagement to reach more members.
- Developing more targeted programs for different demographics within the church.

Conclusion

The year 2024 has been a period of growth, learning, and service for the Kabete Friends Church Monthly Meeting. The dedication of the leadership team, pastoral staff, and members has been instrumental in advancing the mission and vision of the church. We look forward to continued blessings and opportunities in the coming year.
